Production Alert: California Film & Television Tax Credit Program - Application Procedures for Next Round of Available Funds

The California Film Commission (CFC) is no longer accepting tax credit program applications for the current fiscal year. The CFC will begin accepting applications for the new fiscal year* on June 3, 2013. In order to be considered for the first day's allocation, applications must be received at the CFC offices no earlier than 9:00 a.m. and no later than 3:00 p.m. Any application(s) received prior to 9:00 a.m. on June 3rd will be returned to sender unprocessed; any application(s) received later than 3:00 p.m. on June 3rd will be processed the following day.

Applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. However, if more than one application is received on the same date, a random lottery will determine the queue order for processing those applications. There is no need to arrive at the CFC offices earlier than 9:00 a.m. on June 3rd. Applications may be sent to the CFC offices via hand delivery, FedEx, UPS, other private mail service, U.S. Postal Service or via messenger. Please see mailing address below.

If an applicant plans to submit applications for multiple projects, each application must be submitted separately in an individual envelope. Any envelope containing more than one application will be returned to sender unprocessed. Applications must be complete, including all required documentation in order to be processed. Applicants will be notified on June 4th indicating whether or not credits are available for their project.

Tax Credit Regulations state, "Completed applications shall be submitted at least thirty days prior start of principal photography." Therefore, principal photography may not begin before July 3, 2013 in order to be eligible for credits. Approved applicants will receive their Credit Allocation Letters on or after July 1, 2013.

Please refer to <http://www.film.ca.gov/Incentives.htm> for the Application Form and checklist of all required documentation. All applicants should consult with their legal and financial advisors regarding utilization of the tax credits.
